MEMORANDUM OF LAW IN OPPOSITION TO PLAINTIFF’S MOTION

The Court should deny Plaintiff’s recently filed motion for an extension of time to locate an attorney who will represent him. The Court already afforded Plaintiff an ample amount of time to accomplish this task when it, in an Order that was filed before the Defendants had an opportunity to respond, reopened this case and gave Plaintiff 60 days to find a new attorney. See Docket No. 34. If Plaintiff cannot find a new lawyer within this period, then he is unlikely to do so should the Court afford him even more time. Therefore, the Court should stand by its current Order, which gave Plaintiff two months to seek new counsel and an additional month to file a response to the pending Motion for Summary Judgment. See id.
